COLORADO MASTER FARM HOMEMAKER GUILD SCHOLARSHIP

The Colorado Master Farm Homemaker Guild is offering a $500.00 scholarship this year to a Colorado woman with an agriculture background. Known by the guild as the "Second Chance Scholarship", it will be given to someone who has had her college education interrupted or postponed and is hoping to attend a college, trade school or a secondary education institution. Homemakers are encouraged to apply. Requirements are: three names of reference, biographical statement of work history, community involvement, future goals, and a statement why she feels the scholarship should be awarded to her. All applications must be complete when returned to CMFHG and must be returned by May 15, 2017. The award must be used in the year it is received. The Guild reserves the right not to award the scholarship.

Applications are available from County CSU Extension offices and Colorado Master Farm Homemaker Guild Scholarship Chairman, Elsa Mae Reynolds, 23526 WCR 66, Greeley, CO 80631. (970 353 1665)
